

EXPLOITED AT WORK?

YOU MIGHT BE ABLE TO EXTEND YOUR VISA AND TAKE ACTION.

Have you been:

Underpaid or not paid at all?

Harassed
at work?

Made to work in unsafe conditions?

Threatened with visa cancellation?

Treated unfairly or forced to quit?

You may be able to stay in Australia temporarily to take legal action with a Workplace Justice visa
(subclass 408)

What to do

1

Get advice from a migration lawyer or community legal centre

2

Get your workplace issue certified

3

Apply for a Workplace
Justice visa

This material was developed with funding from the Australian Government

Learn more about the Workplace Justice visa

migrantworkers.org.au/wjv

